CASØ
FURNITURE

CASØ ELEGANCE is a small series of finger-jointed oak furniture. The series is made in a simple design, bringing out the simple elegance that brought its name. It is kept in stock in three different color variations. The storage furniture comes with either metal or wooden legs, while the dining tables can be delivered with A-legs, U-legs, or X-legs. All doors and drawers are installed with soft-close and equipped with small metal handles. There are adjustable wooden shelves behind each door and glass shelves in the display cabinet.
